EDWARD H. ZABRISKIE PLAYS AT OBERLIN

Furnished One of the Numbers at the Weekly Recital by the Students.

Edward H. Zabriskie, son of A. D. Zabriskie, appeared on the programme of the students' recital of the Oberlin Conservatory of Music, Oberlin, Ohio, last Wednesday evening. He played a difficult Polonaise by Paderewski, displaying a brilliant technique.

The students who take part in these programmes are those whom the teachers decide have reached a degree of proficiency to enable them to or sing in a creditable manner. I only gives them valuable training in appearing well on the concert platform but affords them an opportunity to play before a very unusual audience— one composed of their fellow students and of the Oberlin Conservatory faculty Mr. Zabriskie is a graduate of the Norwich Academy of the class of 1910. He is a sophomore in Oberlin college and is taking at the same time both piano and theory in the conversa-tory. The blinding snow storm that pre-vailed early Monday evening greatly affected the attendance at the public meeting at the Buckingham Memorial of the local branch of the state association opposed to woman suffrage, the first meeting of the anti-suffragists since their organization, two weeks

Mrs, Eben Learned, president of the Norwich branch, opened the meeting about 8 c'clock with a few preliminary remarks. She said the Norwich branci is still in its infancy, but it is stead illy growing. It now has a member-ship of between forty and fifty members, and more will soon be admitted into the ranks. The object of the organization is to bring good speakers to tell the anti-suffrage side of the useful that is now concerning the cut-street organization. It is now concerning the cut-street organization is now concerning the cut-street organization that is now concerning the cut-street organization.

State President from Hartford. Mrs, Learned then introduced Mrs. Daniel A. Markham of Hartford, president of the state association, as the first speaker of the evening. She said the work of the Connecticut assicha-tion is about two years old. There are a number of branches of the association, and all have fairly large mem-berships. The anti-suffragette as a rule is rather withdrawn, but the fact that they are coming out more and been strangers for a long time."

Why make matters worse by adding a tremendous nummer of women to these numbers of men? Down south there is the problem of the Down south there is the problem of the backward race of the country. We gave the bailot to the black man when we were not ready to give it, and when he was not ready to receive it. There is another thing, the problem of the women who don't want the ballot. The en who don't want the ballot. The women who don't want it are very largely in the majority. Why do we think of the majority, then as anti-suffragettes? Because they are American women, and if an American woman wants anything she generally asks for it. They have not asked for it, and therefore don't wan it. TWO OF LOST BARGES HAD BROUGHT COAL HERE Fred Willembrock and Katle Woods

Had Both Docked at Chappell's. There was local interest in The Bulletin's story Monday of the rescue of the barges' crews off Orient Point, The barge Frederick Willembrock, Capt. George Towne, was one of the last barges to come on the river to the dock of E. Chappell & Co. with a lead of soft coal before the river froze over This was about the first of January.
Barge Katie Woods, which was lost, was at the Chappell dock earlier in the season with a load of coal.
Capt. Towns of the Willembrock had a number of acquaintances in Norwich.

your GREATEST DESIRES. This I positively guarantee to accomplish in the most stubborn cases. I never, never fail.

What good is a clairvoyant's advice unless they are able to lift you out of your troubles, worriments and bad lack? NONE whatTEVER. For instance, suppose you were sick and went to your doctor for help and he simply TOLD you what were your symptoms and ailments, but DID NOT cure YOU, onen for heaven's sake what good would his advice be to you? Would you not he in just as bad shape as before you threw your hard-earned money away for his "talk?" Therefore, this is the very point I want to bring home to you—the same rule holds good regarding the clairvoyant who you decide to consult. What good does it do you to have a clairvoyant simply TELL you of your troubles, heartaches and stumbling blocks unless the clairvoyant has the POWER to overcome them and really be of some substantial benefit to you? For instance, when you sail upon me. I take you by the hand and read your life like an open book. I tell you the bad as well as the good. I tell you mames of enemies or rivals. I will also show you by the hand and read your life in full and also give you the secret power to control them to be true.

If find you have, had bad luck and business failures, I also will tell you name to turn your failures to success. If I tell you the hand business failures, I have the POWER to turn your failures to success. If I tell you the name in full of the one you love the most. I also will tell you have an old inheritance, lost wills, or buried treasure that belongs to you, I also have the POWER to GAIN them for you.

In fact I care not what your troubles may be I can give you the "life line" that will bring you listo the harbor of peace, happiness and prosperity.

There is no wish so great, nor heart he power to would be and prosperity.
